Subsequently Swelled to Ten Persons, Nominations Made But the Republican Declines-No Senatorial Candidate.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 14. -In pursuance of a call extensively advertised by hand-bills, signed by George B. Minor, chairman, "a mass-meeting," of Populists was held in this city to-day, to nominate two candidates for the House and one for the Senate, to represent Albemarle and Greene counties. Six Pop-nilsts assembled at the court-house at 12 nlists assembled at the court-house at 12 o'clock for this purpose. Among this number were Generals Rosser and Field, who with J. H. Herring, were appointed a committee, to name a ticket, who were to report to another meeting to be held at 2 o'clock P. M. Up to this time not a delegate from Greene 1/2 arrivel, and it was understood that if none arrived by 2 o'clock, the nomination for Senator would be postponed until a conference could be held with the leaders of that sounty.

TEN PRESENT. TEN PRESENT.

The reassembling of the "mass-meeting" showed ten present. The delegates from Greene falled to materialize. The committee appointed to name a ticket for the Legislature reported the names of George Minor and J. Snowden Wood, and the ten present voted unanimously for them as candidates for the House of Delegates. Mr. Minor accepted with gratitude, but stated that they had better have named some one else. Mr. Wood, who is a Republican, said he would have to accept, subject to the ratification of the Republicans. He wanted to know where the vote was He wanted to know where the vote was coming from. Dr. Minor then said he, too, would have to take time to think about it, but finally said he supposed he would it, but finally said he supposed he would have to accept.

DECLINED.

Mr. Wood retired to consult with the Republicans. After his conference he returned and declined to accept the nomination. A committee was appointed, authorized to confer with leaders from Greene, at a meeting to be held here next Thursday, and select a candidate for the Senate; also to choose the other candidate for the House of Delegates. A resolution was adopted approving and endorsing the platform of the People's party adopted at Lynchburg, and pledging all homorable means to secure the election of the ticket nominated. It was also announced as the purpose of the organization to secure the election of the ticket nominated. It was also announced as the purpose of the organization to secure needed relief for the people. All persons in sympathy with this purpose were invited to unite with them.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT BOYDTON-Sermon at the Episcopal Convocation-Opening of the Public Schools, (Correspondence of the Dispatch.) BOYDTON, VA., October 14.-Very larg congregations attended the recent revival services held at the Methodist church. The exercises were productive of much good, greatly strengthening the Christians. The paster was unassisted by any other minister, but had the hearty co-operation of the members of his own communion, as well as those of different faiths.

There was a convocation at the Episco-pal church this week. Rev. Messrs. Bryan, Smith, Pruden, Lawrence and Overby were in attendance. In addition to the business matters discussed, each minister preached an interesting sermon minister preached an interesting sermon to large congregations. The first two named delivered attractive and thoughtful address at the missionary meeting.
The public schools opened with a larger enrollment this session than last. Mr. J. E. Williams, the scholarly principal, and Mrs. R. F. Clack, the efficient assistant, are painstaking and popular teachers.
